PRESS RELEASE 2020

CASPIAN

INSPIRED BY THE SILK ROAD, SANDERSON CASPIAN OPENS UP A WORLD OF INTRIGUING AND CAPTIVATING DELIGHTS WITH ITS EXOTIC FUSION OF VERSATILE DESIGNS, NEW FOR SS20.

Laden with treasures and an air of anticipation, intrepid explorers crossed continents, paving the way for the Silk Road. Trading a new and exciting blend of goods and stories, tastes and sense opened up to a world of intriguing and exotic delights.

For more than 1,000 years the Silk Road has linked Asia with the Mediterranean Sea, surrounded by regions remarkable for their textural heritage and bordered by the Caspian Sea, from which this collection takes its name.

Igniting imaginations and a sense of adventure, the romance of faraway places captured in printed cottons, warp-printed silks and hand painted papers have influenced the way we decorate our homes. These cherished items have inspired Sanderson Caspian, a captivating collection new for SS20.

Featuring three beautiful embroideries, nine authentic prints, eight dramatic weaves and 13 striking wallpapers, Caspian's dynamic colour palette is influenced by natural dye colours such as Madder, Indigo, Turmeric and Saffron running through to the subtle tones of Linen, Ivory and Charcoal. Incorporating a blend of new and archive designs on natural cloths, technique rich prints and the finest embroideries sit alongside wallpapers enhanced by subtle mica and metallic highlights.

Rebecca Craig, head of design at Sanderson says, "Caspian is a celebration of country house style and the impact trade routes, specifically the Silk Road, have had on design. We've included a glorious mix of cultural styles from Chinoiserie to Uzbek and from Indian to English country house, fusing exotic influences with a fluid versatility. One of the great things about this collection is that it's open to interpretation, allowing customers to create their own unique look from the colours, chintzes, ikats, Indo-Persian miniatures and Ottoman embroideries that led the way for a more playful and opulent approach to interior decoration."

The launch comprises three books:
Caspian Wallpapers, Caspian Fabrics and Caspian Weaves

CASPIAN WALLPAPERS

Paving the way for a new and exciting blend of tastes and textures, the Silk Road opened up a world of intriguing and captivating delights. Linking Asia with the Mediterranean Sea, Sanderson Caspian celebrates the colours, chintzes, ikats, Indo-Persian and Ottoman designs that travelled along this historic trading route.

A glorious mix of cultural styles, Sanderson Caspian's 13 wallpapers pave the way for a playful and opulent approach to interior decorating, fusing exotic influences with a fluid versatility.

In a fresco style and reminiscent of Indian block prints, this mirrored ogee trellis wallpaper is filled with decorative damask detail. In a range of beautiful chalky shades, a very subtle metallic highlight features on the Stone colourway.

Available in three colourways: Indigo, Stone and Lemon

Kalapi

A powerful symbol of royalty and faithfulness, Kalapi's characterful peacocks with their glorious metallic tailfeathers stand proudly on this striking wallpaper, which was inspired by a fragment of 19th century Indian chintz from the Sanderson archive.

Available in three colourways: Peacock, Parchment and Seaglass

Cantaloupe

A truly stunning representation of exotic fruits inspired by damask influences and botanical drawing, Cantaloupe is a wide-width wallpaper with a wonderfully contemporary look. Complete the look with Sanderson Cantaloupe fabric.

Pamir Garden

Inspired by a document in the Sanderson archive titled 'Animal Kingdom', Pamir Garden is a fantastical wallpaper that reflects the 1970's fashion for exotic patterns and global cultures. Representative of a Persian garden, this oasis scene of floral sprigs, stylised trees, tigers and antelopes has been repainted in a fresco style with a crackle glaze effect in the ground to give a time-worn look.

A striking multi-weave and an excellent colour carrier, this textural chevron design displays an almost 3D effect across its three vibrant and rich colourways.

Available in three colourways: Tyrian, Madder and Sumac
